It is designed to encourage educators, counselors, trainers, and integrated studies majors to understand the context and condition under which African Americans children live. Topics covered include desegregation of our nation's public schools, the tactics of nonviolence, the role of young people in the movement, the struggles for the right to vote, the relationship between protest and legislative action, affirmative action, the 1967 uprising in Detroit which was the largest civil disorder of it's kind until the Los Angeles riots, the founding of the Black Panther party, the rise and transformation of Malcolm X, the connections between the in Vietnam and the problems of poverty in the United States, and the call for Black Power. Participants view the tapes from the award-winning series Eyes on the Prize and discuss the societal implications of the civil rights movement. Social justice and social responsibility are the key concepts which serve as a model for action. Participants create curriculum resources which can empower teachers and students. (5A) ED622 Ethical Dilemmas of the Twenty-First Century- This course addresses the nature of ethical dilemmas: namely, the tension that arises when two or more values compete for our attention or allegiance in particular situations (such as truth vs. loyalty, short term vs. long term goals, justice vs. mercy, or self vs. society). More particularly, the course will focus on the kinds of dilemmas which surface in professional life and social institutions. Course format will include	Yes
